RESUME OF THOMAS HAMMOND BARR

Thomas H. Barr, United States Navy, was born in Oakland, California, on 13 July 1938. He graduated from Stanford University in 1960 with a B. A. in sociology.

Upon commissioning in June 1961, he reported to the USS PROVIDENCE (CLG-6). In February 1963 he was ordered to Commander, Naval Forces, Japan, where he served as an Intelligence Liaison Officer with the Japanese Navy. Following this tour he was selected to attend the Defense Intelligence School at Anacostia, Maryland, and graduated in June 1966.

From July 1966 through May 1969 he served in the Office of Naval Intelligence and on the staff of Commander Naval Intelligence Command in the Pentagon. He was selected as an Intelligence Specialist (1630) and became a restricted line officer. His billet was in the Special Warfare Division where he was the Staff Action Officer.

Following this tour he was assigned to the Naval Intelligence Field Force, Vietnam, where he served as Assistant Fourth Riverine Area Intelligence Officer, and as Third Coastal Zone Intelligence Officer. His mission was to direct intelligence support of, and participate in, both Markettime and Sealords campaigns conducted by Naval Forces in the Mekong Delta.

In September 1970, he became the Operational Intelligence Officer for Commander Antisubmarine Warfare Force, U. S. Atlantic Fleet, and with Commander, Second Fleet. In July 1973 he served as the Intelligence Department Head/Joint Intelligence Center Supervisor on the Amphibious Command Ship, USS MOUNT WHITNEY (LCC-20) during the Arab/Israeli war.

In May 1975 he was assigned to the Naval Postgraduate School where he is the Curricular Officer for Naval Intelligence/National Security Affairs Programs.

He holds the Bronze Star (with Combat V), the Air Medal, the Navy Commendation Medal (second award), the Navy Unit Commendation and Meritorious Unit Commendation, the Republic of Vietnam Presidential Unit Commendation and Meritorious Unit Commendation (Gallantry Cross). He also wears the National Defense Service Medal and the Republic of Vietnam Campaign Medal.
